

September News

Equine Studies is Back!

Join us for our Equine Studies Day, where learning meets fun in the barn and beyond!

Whether you're a first-time rider or a seasoned horse enthusiast, this is the perfect place to explore the wonderful world of horses.

What's in Store

- * Hands-On Horse Time – Learn how to groom, feed, and care for horses while building confidence around these amazing animals.
- * Ride – Enjoy riding lessons tailored to your level.
- * Equine Science Fun – Discover cool facts about horse anatomy, nutrition, and behavior in interactive, kid-friendly sessions.

*Games & Friendships – From barnyard teamwork challenges to camp games and crafts, you'll have a blast while making new friends.

Why Join?

Because this isn't just about riding—it's about adventure, responsibility, and the joy of connecting with horses. You'll leave with new skills, lasting memories, and maybe a little hay in your hair!

Who Can Come

Open to ages 6–16, no experience required.

Spots are limited, so don't wait—sign up today and trot into the fun!

How to Register?

Click Here

Lessons With Sean

Sean is putting down the hammer and picking up a crop. While he has been busying working on the construction at the farm, he is thrilled to get back into the ring. Sean excels at tailoring lessons to the individual riders needs while pushing students towards steady growth.

Book your Lesson with Sean Here

Need more flexibility? Additional times may be available by request.

Volunteer Opportunities

Want to spend more time at the barn, sharpen your horsemanship skills, and give back to our riding community?

We're looking for students ages 13 and up to help with:

- Tacking up horses before lessons
- Assisting younger riders in their classes
- Being a friendly, supportive role model

This is a great way to:

- Gain leadership experience
- Build stronger horse-care skills
- Earn volunteer hours for free ride time

If you're interested in helping out Sign up here

Important News & Updates

September 23 & 24 Equine Studies

September 28th First IEA Show @ Sagamore

November 6-9th Bernie Traurig Clinic

November 6th College Recruitment Talk with Randi Heathman

Thomas School of Horsemanship | 62 Route 106 | Jericho, NY 11753 US

Unsubscribe | Update Profile | Constant Contact Data Notice

Try email marketing for free today!